

Windows Live Mail is being phased out by Microsoft and may disappear as the result of an update to Windows 10.

Use adblock plus to get rid of pop-overs and pop-unders in web browsers – available for Edge and Firefox, possibly Chrome. Free version.

A couple weeks ago, notification that Edge had been upgraded significantly and is working at level comparable to Chrome.

Ads and Pictures seem to be causing problems in a lot of browsers.

In Windows Update 1803 will be able to see telemetry data being sent to Microsoft. With Microsoft account have several options available for recovering a forgotten password. Microsoft indicating recovering password for local accounts also by entering security questions.

Delivering packages to locked car – publicly available vehicles. Reported that 14% of packages that are delivered have disappeared / been stolen.

Speed check programs. Prior to Jan 1 on Charter, speedtest indicating about 66Mbps but has been slowing down and checking is now showing speeds to be all over the board. May be the number of devices within your own house and may be the number of neighbors that are also using the same channel.

Colored Laser – Samsung – MultiFunction a couple years old. Buying Cartridge World toners – no problems.

Discussed HP Instant Ink and using other ink services like Epson ink tank and Canon ink tank.

Home Security cameras – who is using - why use.

- Canary
- Wyze – holds video for two weeks. Wyze camera less expensive than other cameras, no monthly charge.
- Cameras may not work in all cases, e.g., power outages, internet down.